In the second of a three game road trip, the Cougars will face the Tacoma Tide on Saturday night at Curtis Field.

Last year the Cougars tied Tacoma in Washington, but beat them at BYU. This will be Tacoma's third game of the season after a 0-1-1 start.

"It's important for us to win this game to get our season off on the right foot," BYU head coach Chris Watkins said. "The competition will be there, but we're positive about the game."

The Cougars will travel to Canada on Monday to face the Abbotsford Rangers.
