ABBOTSFORD, Canada (May 21 2007)

The Cougars ended their road trip with an impressive 2-0 win over the Abbotsford Rangers.

Tyson Miller scored in the 13th minute after intercepting a pass and then tucking the ball past the goalie and into the back of the net. Britt Osborne added to BYU's lead, scoring in the 37th minute off of a cross by David Clark. Osborne struck the ball off the defender and into the goal. The Cougars were able to keep control of the game and the defense was able to shutout the Rangers.

"It was good to bounce back after our loss against Tacoma," BYU head coach Chris Watkins said. "It's encouraging to end a long road trip with a big win."

The Cougars were missing two key players in the game. Brock Trejo and Steve Magleby were invited to go to Dallas and play with the Real Salt Lake reserves. The two players will rejoin the team in Provo next weekend for their upcoming home games.

The Cougars will take on the Yakima Reds on Friday night followed by the Spokane Spiders on Saturday.
