BYU overcame the Yakima Reds 1-0 Friday night at the Cougars' first home game.

The goal came in the 36th minute when Jake Cavanaugh received a low cross from David Clark. Cavanaugh slotted the ball into the far corner of the net.

BYU's defense held strong, not giving the Reds many opportunities to score. The Cougars also dominated the attack, outshooting the Reds by ten.

"We've already come a long way since the first game of the season," said midfielder David Clark, "we possessed the ball really well tonight."

"We're pleased with the result," head coach Chris Watkins said. "But we have an even bigger game tomorrow night."

The Cougars don't have much time to rest with another game Saturday night. BYU hopes to capture first place in the division with a win tomorrow. BYU will host the Spokane Spiders at 7:30pm in South Stadium.
