PROVO, Utah (July 12, 2007)

The men's soccer team will face the Ogden Outlaws in Ogden for the fourth and last time this season on Saturday night. The last three times the opponents faced each other resulted consecutively in a 1-1 draw, a 6-2 win for BYU and then a 1-0 win for BYU.

It's expected that the fourth game will be just as physical as the previous three. In the most recent game between the two, on July 11th, the referees issued out three yellow cards and one red card.

Saturday's game is important because if BYU wins or ties the Outlaws, the Cougars will win first place in the Northwest Division of the PDL for the 2007 season.

The game starts at 7:00 p.m. at Ogden High School. Tickets can be purchased at the door and are priced at $8 for adults and $5 for youth 17 and under.
