PROVO, Utah (July 19, 2007)

The BYU Cougars will face the Cascade Surge this Friday night in the first of two games this weekend.

When the Cougars faced the Surge in Salem, Oregon last May, they came home with a 2-1 win. The Cascade Surge has a 3-9-2 record. BYU is on an eight-game winning streak and currently holds a 12-1-1 record.

The game will begin at 7:30 p.m. at BYU's South Field. Tickets can be purchased at the door and are priced at $6 for adults and $5 for students and children. The team's last regular season game is on Saturday, July 21st against the Boulder Rapids Reserve.
