The Cougars ended their first game of the season tonight with a decisive 5-1 win over Oregon's Cascade Surge.

The game began with several powerful shots from the Cougars that ended in an own goal assisted by Britton Osborne in the 8th minute. Osborne came back with a second goal for the Cougars in the 36th minute. In the 59th minute, Osborne capped off his hat trick by dribbling three Surge players and striking a ball into the far post net.

"It felt good to be able to zero-in on the goal tonight and put three away," said Britton Osborne. "I hope we can keep up the momentum for tomorrow night."

Zach Defrancis finished a penalty kick in the 68th minute and Scott Heaton finished BYU's 5th goal after receiving a cross from Mike Moreno.

The Surge's Steve Ostergren was able to score a goal in the 76th minute when he stole a pass from the BYU defense.

The Cougars will face the Spokane Spiders tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. at BYU's Haws Field.
