BYU Vs Spokane Spiders

PROVO, Utah (May 17, 2008)

The Cougars added a second win to this season's record with a 2-1 victory over the Spokane Spiders tonight. The first goal of the game came in the 40th minute when Garrett Losee received a cross and played the ball to Zach Defrancis who slotted the ball into the back of the net. Five minutes later, Curtis Graham drew a penalty kick which was also finished by Defrancis.

Spokane was able to get one goal back in the last seconds of the game when Keith Reiling beat the BYU goalkeeper and scored the only goal for the Spiders.

"It's a good way to start the season," said head coach Chris Watkins. "Now we'll see if we can continue to play well on the road."

The Cougars will be on the road next weekend to take on the Yakima Reds on May 23th and the Tacoma Tide on the 24th.
