The Cougars are prepared to do some damage on their home field this weekend with two games.

"We've had a hard time on the road, so we're motivated to get two big wins at home this weekend," said team captain Clay Christenson. "Yakima and Tacoma are both great teams, so these will be some exciting games."

Friday night, the Cougars will take on the Yakima Reds and then the Tacoma Tide on Saturday night. Both games will be played at Hawes Field at 7:30 p.m. Tickets can be purchased at the gate. The cost is $6 for adults and $5 for students and children. Groups of ten or more can get in for $3 each.

The Cougars will play their in-state rivals, the Ogden Outlaws, on Tuesday, June 17th at 7:00 p.m. in Ogden.
