Ogden, UT (June 17, 2008)

The Cougars (4-4-1) are celebrating a 2-0 shutout against the Ogden Outlaws (3-4-2) tonight.

Ogden had a good opportunity to take control of the game in the 5th minute when Outlaw forward Kennan Powell had a one-on-one shot against BYU goalkeeper Brandon Gilliam, but struck the ball just outside of the left post.

The Cougars also had a good chance to score just before halftime, but BYU midfielder Steve Magleby sailed the ball over the goal. But in the 63rd minute, Zack DeFrancis found the back of the net off of a cross from Garrett Losee.

The Cougars put the Outlaws away in the 90th minute when Steven Fellows slid a ball across the Outlaws' goal line and Scott Heaton slammed it into the back of the net.

The Cougars will take the rest of the week off, and then they will be headed to Washington to play the Spokane Spiders on June 26th, and the Cascade Surge on the 28th.
