This Fourth of July, there will be all sorts of fireworks for the BYU men's soccer team. On Friday night, the Cougars (5-4-2) will take on their in-state rivals, the Ogden Outlaws (3-6-2), in Provo.

When BYU took on the Outlaws for the first time this season, the game ended in a 2-0 shutout for the Cougars.

Following Friday night's game, the teams and fans will go to the newly renovated Stadium at South Field to watch the Stadium of Fire fireworks. The game starts at 7:30 p.m. at Haws Field. Tickets are $6 for adults and $5 for students and children.

BYU and Ogden will face each other again on July 8th in Provo at 7:30 p.m., and once more in Ogden on July 12th.
