

Outlaws Overcome the Cougars

Provo, UT (July 4, 2008)

Last year, the Cougars ended their season undefeated at home, and rarely defeated on the road. But this year is a bit more of a struggle, especially after tonight's 2-1 loss against the Ogden Outlaws.

"We blew a big opportunity tonight," said head coach Chris Watkins. It was disappointing to give up two goals at the end of the game. Luckily we have the opportunity to redeem ourselves in a couple of days."

The first half of the game was more of a defensive battle, with neither team threatening a goal.

In the 51st minute, BYU was awarded a free kick after Zack DeFrancis was fouled as he went to goal. Richie Bindrup took the kick and landed the ball into the far post for the first goal of the match. About five minutes later, the Outlaws added a goal to the scoreboard when Matt Broadbent took a free kick and found Flynn Stewart, who volleyed the ball into the back of the net. The Outlaws quickly added a second goal to their score in the 64th minute, when Matt Broadhead struck a free kick that was just outside of the box.

The Cougars hope to come back with a win when they face the Outlaws again on July 8th in Provo at 7:30 p.m.
