

Cougars Win Thriller in Ogden

Kim Christensen

Aaron Gabbart

Ogden, UT (July 12, 2008)

The Cougars and the Ogden Outlaws faced each other tonight for the fourth and final time this season. BYU was happy to come home with a 1-0 win against the Outlaws, putting their season record up to 7-5-2, and the Outlaws to 4-8-2.

Just like the last three games the two teams have played against each other this season, the score was 0-0 at halftime. The second half of the game stayed scoreless until the 89th minute when BYU's Aaron Gabbart received the ball about thirty-five yards away from the Outlaws' goal. After a quick fake to the right, Gabbart blasted the ball into the far post, winning the game for BYU.

Goalkeeper Brandon Gilliam helped lead the Cougars to the shutout with a couple of big saves to keep the Outlaws off the scoreboard.

"I think the key to the shutout was one vs. one defending," said goalkeeper Brandon Gilliam. "We were able to minimize mistakes on our end and keep them out of our net."
